

Flow Chart of the 17th International Students Summit

Date	Preparation for the International Students Summit (ISS)	Procedure for Travel
April 20	Deadline for Nomination Tokyo University of Agriculture (Tokyo NODAI) will contact you by e-mail.	Please send your application form A and B , and a scanned copy of your passport by e-mail (isf@nodai.ac.jp)
June 20	Deadline for Abstract 300-400 words (please follow the guide for writing paper) Please send your abstract by e-mail.
late July		Invitation letter will be sent to you. *Those who need a visa to enter Taiwan, please submit the necessary materials (passport and other documents) to Taiwan Embassy in your country. Please inform us of the acquisition of visa.
July 20	Deadline for Full paper (2,500-3,000 words) Please send your full paper by e-mail.
Aug		Reception of E-Ticket We will ask you to confirm your flight schedule and will send you an e-ticket to your e-mail address.
Sep 1	Deadline for Power Point Slides In case of internet problem, please bring your PPT file with you when you come to Taiwan

Please note that the ISS is a part of the university's official educational programs. All participants should complete their works on time. In case National Chung Hsing University and Tokyo University of Agriculture recognize that you are not good enough for this prestigious program, we may cancel your invitation.

For inquiries, please contact:

Center for International Programs
Tokyo University of Agriculture (Tokyo NODAI)
1-1-1 Sakuragaoka, Setagaya, Tokyo Japan 156-8502
Tel: +81-3-5477-2560 Fax: +81-3-5477-2635
E-mail: isf@nodai.ac.jp